

2026 Coles County Farm Bureau Foundation Scholarship Application

Multiple scholarships are available and will be awarded this year.
For a full list of scholarships, please email colesmgr@colescfb.org.

To be eligible for consideration, an applicant must:

- Be a high school senior and/or freshman, sophomore, or junior in a post-secondary school. If pursuing Master's Degree, it must be an agriculture related field.
- Live, farm, or attend school in Coles County
- Intend to enroll at a post-secondary school, including trade school.
- Exhibit potential for successful completion of course of study.
- Some scholarships require a Coles County Farm Bureau membership

The criterion for awarding these scholarships are as follows:

- Demonstrate interest in agriculture, agribusinesses, education, medical, or trades
- Financial Need
- Character and Personality, Maturity, Moral character, & Demonstrated leadership
- Scholarship: Academic performance & Class honors

Disbursement of this scholarship is subject to submission of an official college transcript from fall semester that shows the student is in good academic standing. All applications must be completed via Google Forms.

Scholarship funding from the Coles County Farm Bureau Foundation will be "applied" to tuition and fees or towards CCFBF approved educational items. Any unused scholarship funds will be returned to the Coles County Farm Bureau Foundation.

Application AND transcript AND letters of recommendation are due March 13th at 4:30 PM.
